Dear Bill:

As a member of the Board you should be informed of a change in plans for the Spring Institute. Aside from the lack of travel funds which many of us are facing, Anne will be under tremendous pressure to begin planning immediately for the 1978 AALL Convention. For this year, at least, we are combining the Institute with the Annual S. E. Chapter meeting in Asheville. I think that this will not only relieve Anne of local arrangements but may even attract some non-law school members who may not attend for various personal reasons.

Very few of us can afford to attend three meetings every year. I would like to put this on the agenda for the business meeting and give everyone an opportunity to express an opinion. We might find the arrangement so advantageous that it could be made permanent subject to change should we want to have a joint meeting with another chapter.

I hope that this meets with your approval.

Sincerely,

Caroline
